FOUNDERS DAY

A CHALLENGING EVENT

Founders Day saw many exciting events spreading throughout the campus. One event that mostly attracted the guys only was the pool tournament. (Top) Troy Rutherford shows his ability as a skilled pool player. (b. left) Glenn Fuggitt smiles as he prepares to show his skills. Another interesting contest was the banana eating contest. This contest was won by Jerry Little and Mel Dedden. Other participants were Benny May and Jeff Dawson.

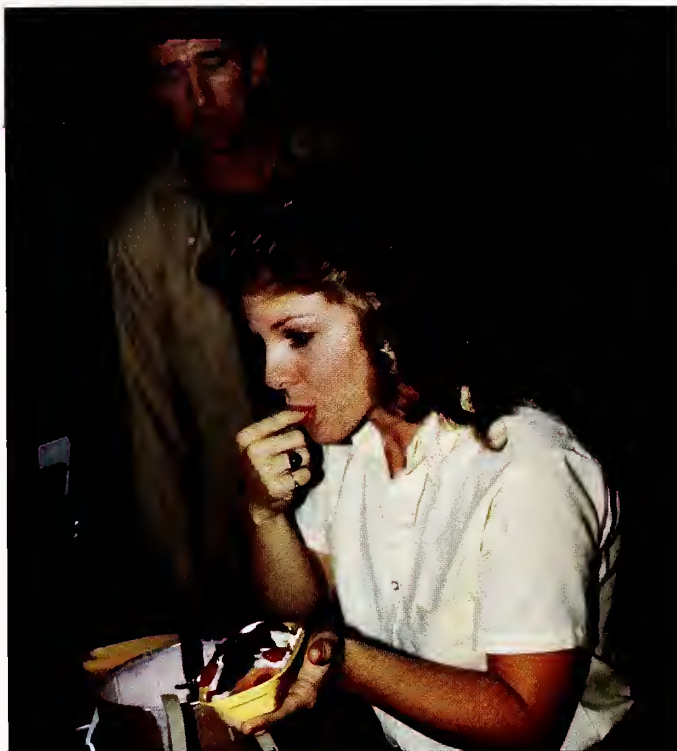

BANANA SPLIT PARTY

The Banana split party was another highlight of the Founders week activities. (Top) Troy Rutherford, Gary Thrash, Sandra Gomez, and Mary Ann Stanley are enjoying the company as well as the ice-cream. (Center) Vickie King, Doris Cantrell, and Lisha Crum have won their fight through the line and find a table at which to relax and enjoy.

(Right) Many students are pictured as some apparently seems to be cutting line to get to their favorite flavor of Ice-Cream. The cafeteria was the location for this pleasurable evening which proved to be only one of many special activities.

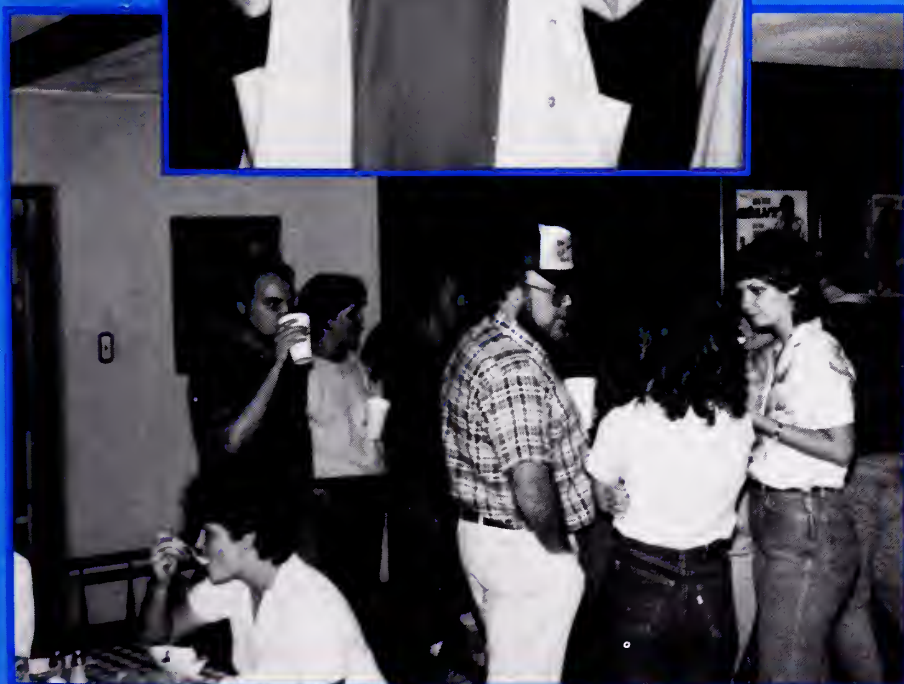

(Above) Michelle Moore finds that the best banana split is the one she builds. Doris and Vickie also seem to be enjoying the festivities.

Dale Gandall, a newcomer to Pikeville College, soon learns that to enjoy means to get involved. Billie Damron soon completes her famous split.

FALL HIGHLIGHTS

(Center) Eugene Sisco gives a modest appearance but is deeply proud of himself for winning the ping-pong tourney. Halloween or Death Row, only someone enjoying Halloween.

(Left) Monkeys or Students? No one was quite sure when they saw the way everyone put away the bananas. College life, a time for parties or just a time to be with friends.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

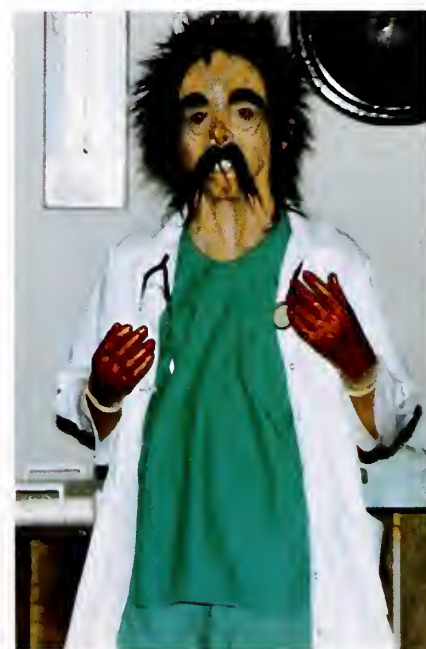

Halloween, an event of strange happenings. It brings out everything from Wonderwoman to E.T. (top cen.) Roberta Hall, as wonderwoman, Jeff Brickett as a cheerleader, Katrina as a clown, Benny with his tan, and Cheryl and Tammy with the Indians.

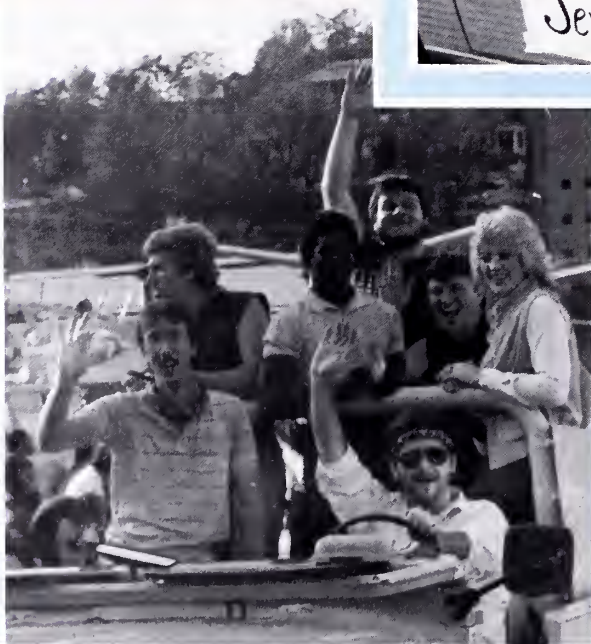

Who said no teachers allowed? Evidently someone forgot to tell Kent Martinez or is that what music does to a music teacher. (Center) Lela Layne From Lady Bear to Count Dracula. (Bottom Center) You can never have too many clowns at any party. (Bottom Rt.) The operation shall now begin but, shouldn't I scrub first.

PARADING THROUGH TOWN

TOYMAKER & SON

The Christmas season was brought in to swing at Pikeville College by the performance of Toy-maker & Son. The play dealt with the life of Christ, the crucifixion, and the resurrection. The performers from the Oral Roberts University and have toured throughout Europe. We should be thankful to have been honored with their performances.

*Pikeville Colleges' first Homecoming was in

*BEARS
SUCCEED*

Homecoming brought about a hard fight for the Bears against The Campbellville Tigers but they were only fighting a losing battle. The defeat was not without dignity because the members of both teams fought to the very end. Often it is the fans that lead a team to victory so more support should be given to the Bears.

DANCING UNTIL DAWN

(top right) Beautifully decorated the gym was transformed into a dream land for many. While, as rumor has it, one of the best dances held at Pikeville College celebrated the Queen and her court with music by Charlie Brown.

PAUL BUTCHER

Coach Paul Butcher is a legend in his own time in PC. During his 26 years as physical education instructor he was baseball coach 23 of those years and says he enjoyed all 23.

After graduating from Pikeville Junior College in 1951 with a two year teaching certificate, he continued his education and was awarded an A.B. degree in physical education at Morehead State Univ. He then did graduate work at the University of Kentucky to earn his M.A. degree in 1963.

"I believe I've taught every class offered in the PE dept. except," he added with a chuckle," basic rhythms.

He lead his teams to conference wins in the early 1960's and finished second 3 years in a row in the early 1970's.

Butcher wasn't limited to a talent in baseball because he was also coach of the basketball team for 12 years.

During the 1967 season the Bears ended the season with a 23-6 overall record. They advanced to the district tournament, but were defeated by Carson-Newman in Athens, Tenn.

Butcher lead his team to 3 K.I.A.C. wins and three district finals where they were beaten in the games that would have advanced them to Kansas City. He was also named Coach-of-the-Year twice.

He was recently named athletic director and will assume that position during the 1984-1985 season.

Coach Butcher has indeed made a tremendous contribution to Pikeville College over the past 26 years. It is with this thought that the 1983-84 Highlander Staff dedicates this yearbook in his honor.

The Pikeville College cheerleaders, sponsored by Susan Huffman, were one of the few squads in the K.I.A.C. to travel with the men's team. So not only did they cheer at all home games, they also followed the Bears on away contests. Their hard efforts paid off when they received a note from a member of the student body at Georgetown College after playing their team January 18, 1984. "... I must say that y'all were the best squad I have seen all year ..."

JUMP ROPE FOR HEARTS

SPONSORED BY PIKEVILLE ELEMENTARY PHYSICAL ED. DEPARTMENT

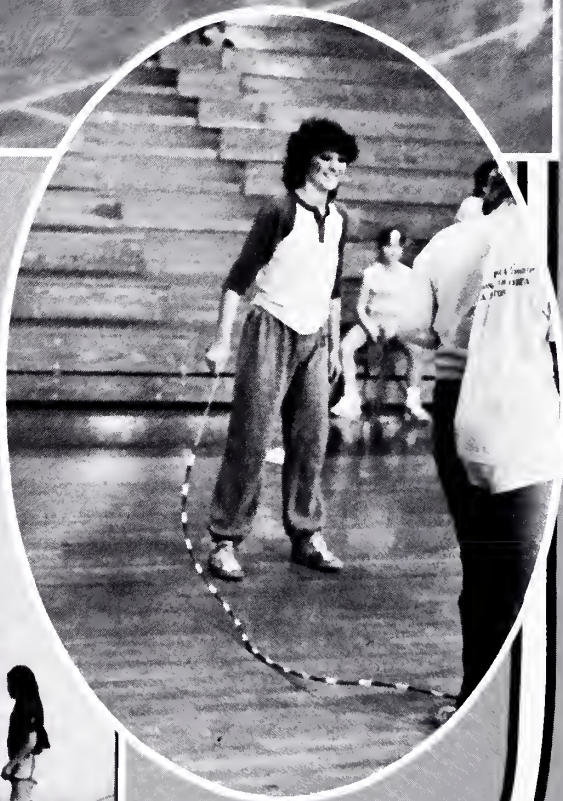

Pikeville College physical education majors and students enrolled in physical ed. classes at Pikeville Elementary School recently helped with JUMP ROPE FOR HEARTS. The annual event was sponsored by the Pike Elem. PE Dept., with the PC P.E. Dept. providing the facility and assistance to those jumping.

JUMP ROPE FOR HEARTS is a national event for students to promote physical education and cardiovascular health while raising funds to help local people and heart associations fight against heart disease and strokes, which kill more people annually than all other causes combined.

Marian Yarus, assistant professor of education, and students in her elem. PE classes assisted in registration and the jumping.

Pikeville College physical education majors helping with JUMP ROPE FOR HEARTS were Sonja Castle, Eastern; Tammy Clevinger, Belcher; Dorothy Compton, Draffin; Teresa Compton, Harold; Melanie Dedden, Erlanger; Trena Hensley, Langley; Dewey Jamerson, Bypro; Karen Martin, Pikeville; Virginia Martin, McDowell; Lisa Morrison, Pikeville; Eddie Mullins, Myra; Janet Potter, Steele; Steve Priode, Pikeville; Madonna Rice, Paintsville; Lynn Stanley, Draffin; Faye Eiley, Estill.

A Student is

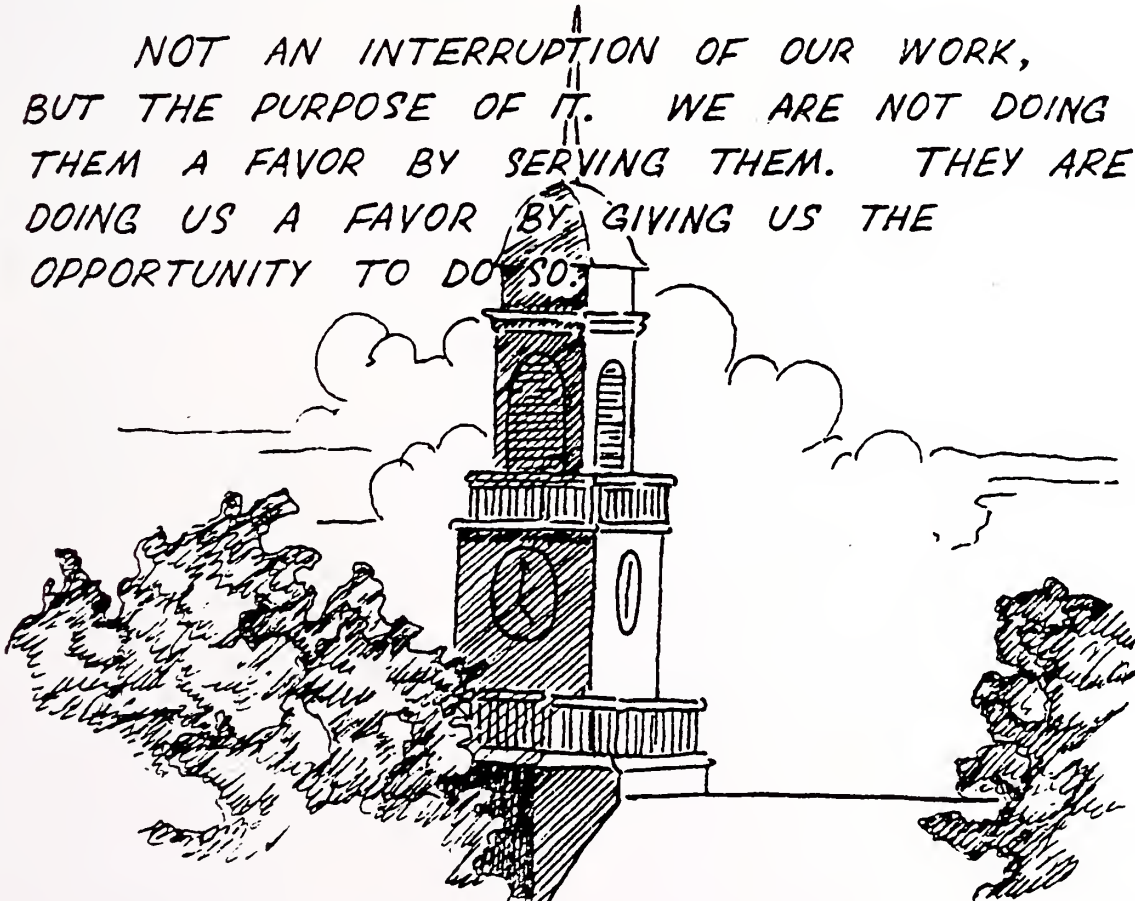

THE MOST IMPORTANT PERSON ON THE CAMPUS. WITHOUT THEM THERE WOULD BE NO NEED FOR THE INSTITUTION.

NOT A COLD ENROLLMENT STATISTIC BUT A FLESH AND BLOOD HUMAN BEING WITH FEELINGS AND EMOTIONS LIKE OUR OWN.

NOT SOMEONE TO BE TOLERATED SO THAT WE CAN DO OUR THING. THEY ARE OUR THING.

NOT DEPENDENT ON US. RATHER, WE ARE DEPENDENT ON THEM.

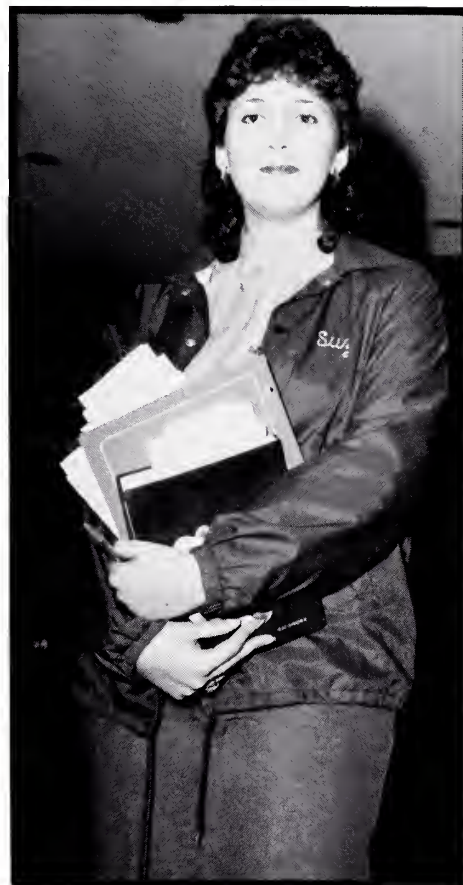

NOT AN INTERRUPTION OF OUR WORK, BUT THE PURPOSE OF IT. WE ARE NOT DOING THEM A FAVOR BY SERVING THEM. THEY ARE DOING US A FAVOR BY GIVING US THE OPPORTUNITY TO DO SO.

Remember the long hours spent in the computer lab? (T) Darrell Prater, Oscar Jones, Dale Gandall, Daniel Luster, Ricky Clevinger, Debby Keen, Kim Lindemann, and Jack Blankenship were all quick to lend assistance to fellow students. (C) Ricky has his program ready to run and Dale must see the results. (B) Debby explains errors in Daniel and Darrell's program.

Teryy gives up and lets them take his picture while Ralph could care less. John Tater, Instructor, went to Belfry in an attempt to recruit students.

A book of little value today could be a book of cherished memories tomorrow. Putting together a yearbook is never an easy job, and calls for many sleepless hours of work, but once you see your work in print it makes it all worthwhile. The production of this yearbook would not have been possible without the help of many dedicated people. Tom Brush, our Josten's Representative, was always just a phone call away, and ready to help in any way. A special thanks, Tom. Marian Yarus and Brenda Hicks, yearbook advisors, were there to give words of encouragement when the end seemed to be nowhere in sight. Susan Huffman was an angel of mercy with all the copy she did at a minutes notice. Also, a special thanks to Jack Tester, Olan Mills Photographer, for the great job he did and the patience he had with some rather difficult subjects. Thanks to everyone else who has contributed to the production of this book in any way. I hope it will be a book you can be proud of. In the future we can look back at this book and remember, "The Way We Were", forever young.
